Purpose

This report is prepared by the Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences (Federation) and provides information about the Awards to Scholarly Publications Program (ASPP) for the program year April 2017 to March 2018. It provides details on two distinct areas of the program: works funded and operational activities.

About the ASPP

The Awards to Scholarly Publications Program is a key activity of the Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences. Formerly known as the Aid to Scholarly Publications Program, the ASPP is a competitive funding program with a mandate to support books of advanced scholarship in the humanities and social sciences that make an important contribution to knowledge. Since 1941, the ASPP has supported the publication of over 7,000 books that have helped to enrich the social, cultural and intellectual life of Canada and the world.

Each year, the ASPP offers approximately 180 publication grants of $8,000 and five translation grants of $12,000, contributing about $1.5 million to the dissemination of Canadian research.

The ASPP is funded by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada and administered by the Federation.

Report on works funded

All ASPP grants are approved in principle prior to publication, and are paid out following publication, directly to the publisher.

Summary

The ASPP paid out 176 publication grants and eight translation grants from April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018. See Appendix A for a complete list of works that were supported by the ASPP in the 2017-18 year.

Report on operational activities

Open Access

The Federation and the ASPP continued their commitment to Open Access this year by participating in the Canadian Scholarly Publishing Working Group. Organized by the Canadian Association of Research Libraries, the working group gathered a diverse group of participants including scholarly publishers, academic libraries, funders, and researchers that met between July 2016 and April 2017. The goals of the group were to “develop a framework for advanced, robust, sustainable, collaborative models for the Canadian dissemination of the scholarly record.” The final report was released in July 2017.

Research project

In December 2017, the Federation undertook a research project on the ASPP. The aim of the project is to gather information on the status and health of scholarly book publishing in Canada, assess the Awards to Scholarly Publications Program (ASPP), and consider options for the future evolution of the program. The research will help assess the value of the program as a vehicle for HSS research dissemination in Canada and explore ways the Federation could revise and improve it to ensure that the ASPP continues to play its role effectively.

New grants management software

At the beginning of 2018, the Federation approved a project to implement a grants management software to streamline the application process, simplify the assessment of publications grant applications, and serve as a searchable database of funded works. The new software development will begin in summer 2018 and continue into 2019. Once operational, it will allow the program to operate more efficiently.

Bookmark It! blog series

In 2017-18, the ASPP continued publishing its blog series, Bookmark It! Introduced in July 2015, the monthly blog series celebrates ASPP-funded books by highlighting and sharing the story behind some of these fascinating and important books. Some books that were featured in the past 12 months include On the Side of the Angels: Canada and the United Nations Commission on Human Rights by Andrew S. Thompson and Refus global : histoire d'une réception partielle by Sophie Dubois. All blogs in the series can be found here: <http://www.ideas-idees.ca/blog-category/bookmark-it>.

Application assessment and approval level

The ASPP uses the following numerical assessment system for publication grant applications:

Score	Descriptor
5.0-6.0	Excellent. Strongly recommended for funding. The work is at the forefront of its field, and it will have significant impact within its discipline. The work's methodological/theoretical framework is strong. The manuscript is well structured and well written. The work's contribution to knowledge is important.
4.0-4.9	Very good. Recommended for funding. The work meets all the standards for high quality within its field and makes a major contribution within its discipline. The work's methodological/theoretical framework is sound, though some parts of it might have been strengthened. The manuscript has structural integrity, and is generally well written. The work's contribution to knowledge is of some importance.
3.0-3.9	Good. Recommended for funding if funds are available. The work meets most of the standards for high quality within its field, and makes a modest though interesting contribution within its discipline, but lacks distinction in at least one of the following areas: methodological/theoretical framework, structure, writing style, and/or importance.
2.9 or less	Not recommended for funding. The work meets some of the standards for achievement within its field, but makes only a limited contribution within its discipline, and is flawed in at least one of the following areas: methodological/theoretical framework, structure, writing style, and/or importance.

The ASPP’s Publications Committee, which assesses applications for the awarding of publication grants, scores each application according to this scale. Each application is then ranked along with all other applications scored in that month and the top ranking applications are approved.

The average monthly cut-off point for this program year was 4.2, and no application scoring 4.4 or above was declined for funding. This cut-off point is not fixed and may change in subsequent years.

Summary of activities²

The following table outlines the operational activities of the ASPP from April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018.

Applications	2017-2018	2016-2017	2015-2016	2014-2015
Received	226	270	262	252
Approved	177	180	181	179
Declined	54	94	66	67
Withdrawn	0	2	3	2
Ineligible	6	2	6	4

At the conclusion of the 2017-2018 program year, approximately 31 applications were still in process.

The following breakdown by language is for information only; the language of an application is not a criterion for funding approval.

Applications	2017-2018		2016-2017		2015-2016		2014-2015
	EN	FR	EN	FR	EN	FR	EN	FR
Received	182	44	227	43	222	40	221	31
Approved	150	27	152	28	161	20	154	25
Declined	42	12	80	14	53	13	59	8
Withdrawn	0	0	2	0	2	1	2	0
Ineligible	3	3	0	2	4	2	3	1

Of the 31 applications still in process at the conclusion of the 2017-2018 year, 18 were for works in English and 13 were for works in French.

Approval rate

Between April 1, 2017 and March 31, 2018, there were 220 publication grant applications that were processed and brought to resolution. Of these, 175 were approved, for an overall approval rate of 80%.

² For the following charts, the number of applications approved, declined, etc. will not equal the number of applications received, because applications are sometimes resolved in a year other than the one in which they were received.

Response time

For applications brought to resolution between April 1, 2017 and March 31, 2018, the average response time (from the date the application was received to the date the decision letter was issued) was 12.9 weeks.

Translation grants

Each year, the ASPP offers approximately five translation grants to support translations of scholarly books. The ASPP's Academic Council meets twice a year to make decisions on the awarding of translation grants.

The ASPP received seven translation grant applications in 2017-2018 and awarded five grants.

Awards

Many ASPP-funded books go on to win awards within their disciplines. The Federation also awards the Canada Prizes to the best scholarly books in the humanities and social sciences that have received funding from the ASPP.

2018 Canada Prizes

Celebrating the best Canadian scholarly books—not simply within a single academic discipline, but across all the disciplines of the humanities and social sciences—the Canada Prizes are awarded to ASPP-funded books that make an exceptional contribution to scholarship, are engagingly written, and enrich the social, cultural and intellectual life of Canada. Two prizes of $5,000 are awarded. This year’s Canada Prizes winners are:

Other awards

Over the past year, many ASPP-funded titles have gone on to win or contend for other awards. See Appendix B for a list of 39 ASPP titles that have been contenders for (or have won) awards.

Governance and administration of the ASPP

The ASPP is a competitive funding program run by the Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences. The ASPP is funded by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada.

The Academic Council, a committee of experienced scholars, advises the Federation's Board of Directors on matters relating to the ASPP's policies and strategic direction. The Chair of the Academic Council is an appointed member of the Federation's Board.

Academic Council 2017-2018

Chair: Anne-Marie Fortier, Département des littératures, Université Laval

Co-chairs: Jennifer Andrews, Department of English, University of New Brunswick
Jacques Bertrand, Monk School of Global Affairs, University of Toronto
Michèle Dagenais, Département d'histoire, Université de Montréal
Jane Errington, Department of History, Queen's University
Marcel Martel, Department of History, York University
Alain Noël, Département de science politique, Université de Montréal
Stuart R. Poyntz, School of Communication, Simon Fraser University
François Rocher, School of Political Studies, University of Ottawa

Federation staff

As a key activity of the Federation, the ASPP is run by a team that regularly provides input on policy, administration and communications. While all Federation staff members indirectly support the ASPP, the following individuals were all directly involved in the management and support of the program this year:

Josée Dallaire, Program Officer, ASPP
Lanor Mallon, Governance and Office Coordinator
Gauri Sreenivasan, Director of Policy and Programs (April 2017 to Nov 2017)
Nicola Katz, Acting Director of Policy and Programs (Dec 2017 to Mar 2018)
Pascal Thaka, Accountant
Kayla MacIntosh, Junior Communications Officer
Gabriel Miller, Executive Director
