Dr. Malinda S. Smith

Chair of the Advisory Committee on Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Decolonization
Vice Provost and Professor of Political Science
University of Calgary

Dr. Malinda S. Smith, the Chair of the Advisory Committee on Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, and Decolonization, is the inaugural Vice Provost (Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion), a Professor of Political Science, and a Fellow of the Pierre Elliott Trudeau Foundation at the University of Calgary. Dr. Smith previously served as the Vice-President (Equity Issues) for the Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences.

Dr. Smith is a member of the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council, Statistics Canada's Advisory Committee on Ethnocultural and Immigration Statistics and its working group on Black communities in Canada; the National Dialogues and Action's Inter-Institutional Advisory Committee; and the BlackNorth Initiative's Education Committee. Dr. Smith advised on the drafting of the Tri-Agency's Dimensions EDI Charter, and served on the Canada Research Chairs Program's Advisory Committee on EDI Policy (2018-21), where she also chaired the CRCP's EDI Review Panel (2019-2020).

Dr. Smith is co-editor of Nuances of Blackness in the Canadian Academy (forthcoming, UofT 2021) and co-author of The Equity Myth: Racialization and Indigeneity at Canadian Universities (UBC Press, 2017), and co-editor, States of Race: Critical Race Feminism for the 21st Century (BTL 2010). She is the founder of The Diversity Gap Canada, and a columnist for University Affairs Magazine.
