

Join the Scholarly Book Awards Publications Committee!

What are the Scholarly Book Awards?

The Scholarly Book Awards offer financial support for the publication and translation of scholarly books that make a significant contribution to knowledge and scholarship in the humanities and social sciences.

This competitive program awards:

- 180 Publication Grants of $8,000 awarded annually
- 5 Translation Grants of $30,000 awarded annually, including one dedicated to Indigenous languages translation.
- Supplemental Open Access grants of $8,000 for books, and $2,000 for chapters.

Why should you join the Publications Committee?

- If you enjoy seeing a wide variety of cutting-edge research in your discipline, and would like to contribute to their dissemination, this role is for you!

What will you do?

- This is a volunteer position with a term of office of three (3) years, for up to two (2) terms.
- You can expect to review 12-15 applications per year, varying by discipline.
- You are not expected to read entire manuscripts.
- Your focus will be on the peer review reports submitted with the application, and the author's response to those reports.

Who can join?

- We are looking for committee members who read English, French, or both.
- Committee members should have demonstrated experience in their field of research.
